Numerology and Past life Reading Colour and Astrology comments

Numerology is based on the energy of your date of birth and your name which is converted to numbers. This is your unique energy. From these numbers I then have a map or jigsaw puzzle of your energy, what's unique about you and what drives you. This is supported both scientifically and mathematically going back as far as Pythagoras.

Numerology is supported both scientifically and mathematically. Pythagoras is known as the 'father' of Numerology. He was a philosopher and mathematician who lived in the sixth century B.C. Even before that there is evidence that Numerology was used thousands of years ago in China, Greece, Egypt, Italy and Israel. The teachings of Pythagoras were taken up by Plato and reinforced by the writings of the Jewish Kabala.

Based upon Pythagoras' statement, "The world is built upon the power of numbers," numerology became systems of both divination and magic because both systems are based upon the broader concept that the entire universe is composed of mathematical patterns, and all things can be expressed in numbers which correspond to universal vibrations. Therefore, all things, including names, words, birth dates and birthplaces, are able to be reduced to numbers in order to determine personalities, destinies and fortunes of individuals.

It is a simple system that follows a one-to-nine cycle and assigns a number value to each letter of the alphabet. During a reading, the number values of the letters in your name and the numbers in your birth date are added together in various combinations to reveal important information about you and your life.

There is a deeper reason behind the date you chose to be born and the name you were given.

Key Numbers

Song/ Life path = sum total of date of birth - what here to experience and learn this life time

Overall self expression (OSE) = sum total of name = what must do and use to get on right path

Urge of soul = vowels in name = you have these qualities to use and soul will urge you to use

Personality = consonants in name = as others see you and your general personality

Personal Intent = your first name = your own personal intent.
Day of birth - power from that day

Your date of birth gives me your Song which is the path you are taking this life time. The song you should sing.

Your key numbers are (the last digit is your prime number – therefore as you will see below 6 is your prime song number):

Your key numbers are:

Your Song = 33/6 – Date of Birth
Your OSE = 15/6 – full name
Urge of Soul = 21/3 – vowels in name
Personality = 12/3 – consonants in name
Personal Intent = 11/2 – first name

Family Karma = 40/4 - surname
Date = 12th – day born

Your key colour is Pink and the planet Venus = 6 (more on this later)

You have an abundance of 6s and 3s which says a lot about you. More to follow.

Born on the 12th

Because you were born on the 12th, you have one of the most magnetic birth dates in the calendar. You have an exceptional ability to express yourself, be convincing, and persuade others. Your mind goes right to the heart of any issue. You are idealistic, yet logical, and often brilliant. Easily bored, you tend to tire of people once you have "picked their brains." Naturally charming, you love to start conversations and flirt. Your eye for colour and design, especially in photography, is outstanding. You love information about what's happening in the world--from movies, magazines, television -- and keep up-to-date on who is who. You are something of a celebrity yourself. You enjoy life to the full. .

Before I go into detail about your numbers, I give below a very general overview of the characteristics which come from your date of birth and astrological chart

Pisces (Sun in Pisces, Moon in Virgo)

- Good intuition
- Capable
- Affectionate and emotional
- Compassionate and understanding
- Always looking out for other people sometime to your own detriment
- In love you want your partner to be understanding and sympathetic.
- Harmony exists when you use a balance of your intuition with your commonsense.
- You do analyse things and can be critical
- You are not overly ambitious but you have the ability to do well
- You can be selfish but equally you can be overly helpful
- You work hard but need mental stimulation
- You like your independence but also like someone else to make the important decisions
- You can be very friendly but also like your privacy
- You are creative
- You are always busy and need to relax
- You make a good adviser and counsellor
- You are good with people.
- You are influenced by your feelings and moods and can have rapid changes of moods. You control these better in later life.
- You like to nurture and be nurtured
- You prefer not to be obligated to others.
- You pick up easily on other people's needs and thinking
- You are fortunate in love and romance. You can love intensely but there is a part of you which can lose interest after a certain time.
- You have lasting attachments and friendships.
- You like to be impressed and attract powerful individuals.
- You can be cautious but also not unafraid to take risks
- Although give a carefree impression you do get moments of fears and doubts.

You are a Water sign.

You have Sun in Pisces
 Moon in Virgo
 Ascendant in Virgo
 Mercury in Seventh House

This indicates you are sensitive and empathetic. You are intuitive and can be psychic. You have good imagination. You feel responsible and guilty and need to learn to let go and go with the flow. Trust and detach yourself otherwise go into victim archetype or become a martyr. Will be learning when to support others and when to let go.

You are working on developing boundaries – you can be sympathetic and understanding but do not take on their pain. You over-give give and then resent.

You have lots of vitality.

You are working on your self worth and personal identity

You learn to handle your emotions

In summary your astrological sign is saying you are loving, dependable, friendly, caregiver, artistic, traditional, responsible, practical. You have Suns and Moons in your chart which reflect vitality, self worth, personal identity, mothering and nurturing and lots of emotion.

Date of Birth – Life Path – Song - what here to experience

12.3.1971 (18) + 15 = 33/6.

3 27
6 9
15
6

33/6 - This is a master number (so double strengths and added challenges)

This involves:

- Vision and Acceptance
- Expression and Sensitivity
- You are working through issues of perfectionism. You learn not to be disheartened when things are not perfect. Things are perfect exactly as they are.
- You always attempt to do the right thing because of your high ideals.
- You do try to suppress your anger or sadness and although very emotional, you can appear cool and indifferent.
- You seek approval.
- You are working on your inner expression first before your outer expression blooms. You are working on your own inner feelings. You are always trying to be the best but you need to learn to accept yourself and love yourself exactly as you are.
- You learn not to be sensitive to criticism.
- You are learning not to judge and to express yourself positively
- You are enthusiastic and uplifting. You see the sunny side of life
- You come to accept all that happens in your life is fuel for growth and learning.
- You will have periods of self doubts
- Self doubt and perfectionism are two hurdles for 33/6s.
- You are not patient and like to get on with things and not follow a step by step process. You would be better slowing down and enjoying the journey of life.
- You have a bright energy reflecting purity and clarity
- You are attractive and enthusiastic about helping people.
- You see the positive side
- You are healthy and strong. You like exercise.

- You have a kind word about everyone
- You value justice, right and truth.
- You do get disappointed with people and get frustrated.
- You do judge the world against unreachable ideals.
- You can fall into victim mode so be aware of this
- You are successful and do good work
- You need to stay practical and realistic
- You are impatient
- You are busy and can get very scattered
- You are a perfectionist but you are inclined to procrastinate
- When you fully believe in and appreciate yourself (as you are - and not as your ideal - you then fully express your joy for life.
- You are always busy and need to work on more precision, organisation and structure in your life.
- This life time you are to use your communication skills, expressive and intuition. You could make a good teacher, writer, actor, athlete - anything to do with communication. You tend to offer that extra touch.
- Think about how you use your expressive energy. Do you get self doubts and set overly idealistic standards. Appreciate yourself as you are. Let people know how you are feeling. Reconnect with your real – not ideal – feelings. Express yourself, not just in your thoughts. Acknowledge your sensitivity.
- Be flexible – have high visions but not expect perfection – be positive – connect to your intuition and live in the present moment.

Health = you are strong and healthy. Sometimes get nervous stomach when under pressure or stress. If get too judgmental could get arthritis in later life. Great if you ease up and go with the flow more. You like fitness/exercise.

Relationships = You like to keep your cool and do not always show your deep/true feelings. You want everything to be perfect but your partner loves you as you are. You are very nurturing and giving. You value mutual support but he needs to allow you to have your own private space at times.

Work/Talents = Naturally prone to success. You are sensitive and intuitive but need to keep practical and realistic and keep positive. Abundance will flow if you conquer your doubts and not procrastinate. Your communication skills are excellent and you love people. Be more focused and organised.

The four is saying you will have to work on stability. Also preparing well and patience. Balance using your logic as well as your emotions. You will skip things. Will be ambitious but need to work on the stability and follow through. Work on strong foundations, focus and growth. Challenge of patience. Be more organised.

The seven is saying you will be working on trust and openness. Trust your feelings, go with your heart and take emotional risks. Circumstances may come into your life where you feel betrayed or get paranoid because your mind is all over the place and over analysing everything. Need to believe in yourself and others. Be sensible. Do not overly manipulate. Challenge of pride.

The vowels in your name reflect the qualities you have and should use. Your values and what you choose to undertake:

This is 21/3 so again another 3. All about expression, sensitivity, creativity, confidence, co-operation and balance.

You should use your creativity. You are sensitive to others and open. You can help others with their problems. You uplift others with your caring words. You can reach out to people.

Do not get oversensitive to criticism and hit back. Do not suppress your feelings and block your creativity.

Use your creative abilities. Watch swings from over confidence to self doubt. Express your feelings. Emphasize your strongest qualities. Be authentic. Be honest with yourself and others. Have faith in yourself. Be positive. Find balance and not extremes. Learn when to say 'yes' and when to say 'no'. It is OK to be vulnerable but you are not weak.

Search for inspiration. Don't underestimate yourself. You are sociable and have lots of friends. You raise the spirits of others.

You will talk a lot and and try to do too many things. Your happy outlook will help you in all aspects of your life.

The consonants in your name are your personality as other people see you

This is 12/3 so again very much as above. You are a bubbly, happy person. Creative and friendly. You would help anyone and always give an outward appearance of being positive. You are sensitive to criticism. You scatter your talents and have too many loose ends.

The total of your name is 15/6 (again a 6). This is what you use for your direction in life. Also the sum total of your date of birth and your name = 6 + 6 = 12 = 3. This is your destiny.

Here again we are getting strong messages of 3 and 6 so your purpose in life and your destiny is set out in these numbers.

Here to work on issues involving idealism, independence, and creative energy, finding creative ways to uplift others by first accepting yourself – then sharing your vision with others.

You will overcome hurdles of perfectionism, dependence and insecurities. You have a strong sense of service and like to help others. You learn to see the bigger picture of life and accept yourself and others exactly as they are. You can over help and over love but then resent. You can be needy. Keep balance in mind. Do not expect perfection from others and love them for themselves.

If you focus your creative energies you can bring about all possibilities.

You need direction and a goal otherwise will wander in a dream world. You are innovative and can open doors provided do not get scattered and directionless. You like to escape.

You have to work on your discipline. Be patient. Visualise what you want and let your vision inspire you. Find your freedom within yourself. Use your creativity in a practical way. Enjoy your world in the present moment. Do not get lost in petty details. Seek harmony.

You are working on responsibility. Also about not feeling responsible for everything and everyone.

Your insights and wisdom are important. Be Honest. Watch your ego. You like to be flattered. Do not lose your own personality in over helping others.

You are here to help, guide and assist people. You value justice, you are very nurturing and you relate to most people.

3 = Happy, imaginative, creative, get bored easily, stay youthful, extravagant spender, scattered, you like attention, optimistic. Very enthusiastic until get bored. A lot has already been said about this.

Rachel is your personal intent and it is a master number of 11 so this gives you your double creativity and confidence. It will also bring out your sensitivity and difficulty in making decisions. Believe in yourself.

Your have 14 letters in your name which is about your habits and some challenges to be aware of. These might include:

Instability

Restlessness

Impatience

No structure and you need to set boundaries and goals.

You will feel guilty because start many projects which do not finish

You both like and fear change

Your Ages

In terms of your first half of your life – this is very much about finding yourself ,using your confidence, using your creativity. It has been a busy time and fun. You have been trying different things and enjoying change. You are now 35 so now is a time of re-evaluation and taking some control. Perhaps a time of feeling a little restless.

As your chart moves from your mid 30s particularly from 36 onwards I start to see a change and more structure and stability . You are more practical. Family issues may arise with your parents or children . Need for balance and compromise. A bit of a maverick may come out and you may want to do things 'your way' as there is a feeling that you have already had the first half of your life looking after everyone else. You are putting structure into your life.

In your mid 40s life is abundant and you are doing things that inspire you. You feel more in control and trusting. Abundance flows through your creative efforts. Might take on some alternative work combining business with personal growth or spiritual pursuits. You bring people together.

In your 50s – this is a key time for you as you reach a 15/6 which is the same number as your full name so very much connected to your purpose. Here things will arise concerning perfectionism, flexibility, enjoying the present moment, being disciplined and repeating cycles. Stay grounded, apply focus and discipline. You can awaken people from their boring, sublime lives and inspire them to greater things. You are helping others and having some adventure and fun. Hold onto your vision and reach it through discipline.

The drives of the 15/6 blend energies of creativity, liberation, justice and a longing for perfection and form one of the most distinctive, high minded life paths this century.

You are working on relationship issues which could include a romantic liaison but you should consider investing more time and energy into your partnership. Eventually you are more accepting of yourself, your partner and your world.

Your later years are a 'four' so you are using your creativity, you have stability and your family is important. You feel safe and secure.

In terms of the next five years – here are some general comments

12.3.2006 = 23 = 5 = progress, adventure and opportunities. Restless. Maybe unexpected change. Time of working hard but also feeling impatient. Wanting your freedom and being a bit self indulgent.

12.3.2007 = 24 = 6 = justice, nurturing and responsibility. Love and relationship things may arise. Helping others but do not lose yourself. Consolidation of what your life is. Busy and joyful time – stay positive.

12.3.2008 = 25/7 = time of thinking, being aware. Share how you are feeling. Follow your instincts and trust. More potential. Seeking out knowledge, learning new things. Taking risks.

12.3.2009 = 26/8 = Re-evaluating things. Being flexible. Abundance and success. Questioning things. Think about your goals. Taking control.

12.3.2010 = 27/9 = time of compassion and forgiveness. Wisdom and inspiring others. Tying up loose ends. Helping others. Watch do not over help and become the martyr. Friendship love and affection are the cornerstone of your life.

Past Lives

3 and 6 do experience periods of self-pity and the victim syndrome. This energy has been brought forward from a previous life.

In a previous life your emotions have been tightly controlled and repressed so this life time you are learning to handle your emotions.

In your surname Southern – you are bringing with you some of the Karma from the history of your family. This is a four so in a past life your family lacked stability and creativity and perhaps did not put down strong foundations. They could have been quite serious and you have come through to work on the fun side. Perhaps they didn't take risks and take their chances. Again you are working through this. Usually brings up family issues and the importance of a solid family.

You are an old soul – I picked up on 4 core past lives, although you have had many more. They involved a life as

Native American Indian

Religious leader – Christian world – Israel/Middle East

Egyptian lady

Roman soldier's wife

As an American Indian you were a female. You had a sister who you hurt by having a relationship with her husband. This was about 5,000 years ago. This has brought with you into this life (subconsciously) that you feel guilty for doing this and now always try to please others. Victim side.

In the Middle East you were a man and you were quite senior in a religious authority or order. You were not fully supportive and had mental battles with your convictions. This was not resolved so it comes through now with your feelings of responsibilities and self sacrifice.

In Egypt you were female. You were wealthy and beautiful and wanted everything to be perfect. You were very judgmental of your sister. You did not resolve this fully so now you do have issues of perfectionism.

In Italy – you were the wife of a Roman soldier and he had to go to war. You had to suppress your emotions and he died quite young. He was brave and honourable but you were sad not to have had more time with him. This lifetime you have brought with you a sense of fun and joy which was repressed from you in this past life.

The following are your core numbers taken from your chart and matched with colour bottles of the same numbers. I give below the interpretation via Colours which is spot on:

6. Venus (Pink/Pink)

Venus relates to love, harmony and joy in relationships. She is feminine and bring love into our lives when we learn that love from the outside comes when we reach a place of deep self-acceptance. Pink is the colour of unconditional love and tells us that the more we are able to love ourselves, the more abundant our lives will be. A feeling of "not enough" inside will always lead to a reality reflection of "not enough" outside. This is also the colour we relate to the feminine side of mothering. Maybe now is the time to treat yourself to some of your own nurturing energy.

15. Magician (Olive/Olive)

Magic based on feminine power. Olive has built into it hope for the future. Olive is made up of yellow and green, green is the heart and yellow is the solar plexus and the combination of the two combines love and power. The magician is the bringer of heaven to earth because he has owned his power to co-create. This is the pot of gold at the end of the rainbow. 15 reduces to 6 and vibrates with the planet Venus, which is love and magic. All you have to remember is to include others in your magic and to make sure you create for the good of the greater whole.

33. Love and Magic (Pale Pink/Rose Pink)

Venus watches over this bottle and comes in bringing gifts of love, magic, money and creativity. 33 is a master number that carries the vibration of harmony, romance and success. This is a divinely blessed time for anyone who relates to these colours. Pink is the colour of unconditional love and self acceptance. Be joyous and triumphant. Your ability to love yourself is your greatest gift or lesson. Everything we experience is only a reflection of what we believe we deserve. Change your mind about yourself and your whole reality will change. Love yourself and your whole universe will conspire to prove to you how right you are. In the pink you will find the road to tranquility and harmony in body, mind and soul.

12. Sacrifice - Victim (Coral/Red)

A last look at our belief that we somehow have to be or provide a blood sacrifice to achieve spiritual mastery. Where are you still feeling victimized? A belief that vows of poverty and celibacy are necessary for us to be spiritual? Our new journey has been through GRACE. We are now firmly on the path of grace. All our past experiences are being acknowledged and released so that we may stand up and recognize our journey as one that is bringing heaven to earth. Into the red where it is most real. The vibration of the new. We are the 'I Am'.

21. Crown of the Magi (Gold/Yellow)

This is the golden crown bestowed upon the successful initiate. you have come through the dark and testing times successfully and now you can wear your crown of glory with pride. This is the end of a cycle and you have come of age. You are now 21 and fully responsible for what you create and how your life unfolds. You no longer doubt your ability and your courage has overcome many obstacles. You can look forward to worldly gains and peace in your heart.

3. Jupiter (Coral/Coral)

Huge, expansive and powerful. This number resonates with the new Christ Ray. The colours indicate love (pink) and wisdom (yellow) to make the coral. It is a colour that indicates a move away from old patterns of giving power away and to reclaiming who you are and what you are for fearlessly. This is a time of finally standing up and saying "This is who I am on the planet". When we are finally able to do that with conviction the universe will support us with its blessings and Jupiter's beneficence will be felt in our lives. This could be a time of great blessings when we unconditionally accept ourselves with love and compassion.

In Summary

You are bringing your expression into the world. You share your feelings and ideas in a positive and honest way. You apply your sensitivity and your ability to uplift people. You bring fun and vitality into people's lives. Accept life as it is and see the bigger picture and do not get too wrapped up in the busy world you find yourself in. Seek out some discipline and focus.

You are creative and deeper than you appear. You can be vulnerable and get down at times. You are fair-minded and would make a good judge, although not afraid to bend the rules yourself. You are a survivor and your intuition is spot-on.

You can manipulate behind the scenes but your heart is in the right place.

Remember be strong and focus. Ensure you get some private time for relaxation and enjoy life in the Now.
